AMERICAN FOOTBALL

10 YARD FIGHT

1. A Spectacular American Football Game, in which the player is kept on full alert by the sheer excitement of the game, the player having to make a touchdown within the time alloted.

2. From kickoff the player catches the ball kicked by a defensive player, end rushes ahead as far as possible avoiding the opposing players by moving the joystick left and right.

3. If the player can gain 10 or more yards by the fourth down, he automatically receives "First Down", giving him another 4 offensive plays. If a first down is not obtained in 4 plays, the player is penalized 10 yards.

4. When the player is tackled by the defence, rotate the lever in a 360-degree arc quickly before he falls down, then player can get free from the tackle, but remember that player can use this technique only 3 times in each play.

Passing Play

1. Player can pass the ball only when the pass receiver is raising his hand. (The ball can be passed sideways and then forwerd consecutively.

2. If the ball thrown to the pass receiver should be intercepted by the opponents, player will be penalized 20 yards.

3. If player steps ahead of the line of scrimmage the ball can no longer be passed, and the pass button becomes inoperative.

Additional time is given every time the player succeeds in making touchdown, and every time he gains a first down.
